Seventeen Known Dead is Latest Report From Hot Springs, Famous Ozark Summer Resort

$1,500,000 LOSS ESTIMATED

Tornado, Cloudburst and Fire Swept Through The City During The Night—Relief Trains Rushed

St. Louis, Mo., May 15—Seventeen are known dead and an undetermined number, estimated between fifty and one hundred, are missing in the storm swept region around Hot Springs, Ark., according to information received at headquarters of the Missouri Pacific railroad here.

A relief expedition was dispatched from here today but railroad officials feared wash-outs along the right of way would prevent the train from reaching Hot Springs.

(By United Press)

Hot Springs, Ark. May 15—A tornado, cloudburst and fire that swept Hot Springs, famous resort, during the night left behind flood and ruin that is reported to have taken several lives and did $1,500,000 damage.

A definite check of the casualties was impossible as rescue parties, including nurses, physicians and army and navy hospital attendants started relief work. No bodies had been received at morgues.

Townpeople and businessmen, their property wrecked and damaged by the ten foot wall of water that swept through the town aided in clearing the wreckage and search for the bodies.

The night of destruction and terror for this famous pleasure place in the Ozarks began shortly before dusk. A cloudburst swept down through the hills, a high velocity wind accompanying it. As the deluge poured down through the streets asphalt was ripped up and sent tumbling end-over-end before the torrent. Front of business buildings and other structures on the three main boulevards were crashed in.

Automobiles standing at curbs and racing to avoid the torrent were washed away, many drivers narrowly escaping into the valleys among the hills below the town. A fire broke out as the flood passed. Flames, caused by lightning, burst from the Grand Rapids Furniture Company, and fire fighting forces battled the flames in mud and water but with little success. The blaze ate its way into the main business buildings.

The red flames flickering on the murky water in the darkness of the night, cast weird shadows and added to the fear of women and children who covered in their homes.

NOTHING NEW IN RECENT ROBBERIES

Very Little Left Behind For Officers To Work On, Following Week End Burglaries

DETECTIVES ARE AT WORK

No new developments have been discovered by the officers following the series of robberies and safe blowing in Rushville Saturday and Sunday nights, and because of the clean-cut affair of the robberies, there were no clues left with which to follow.

The loss of $350 in cash at the Standard Oil Company's filling station, where the safe was blown open Sunday, was the greatest loss. Soap and butter were used to deaden the sound of the explosion, as a portion of a case of soap was found after the robbery.

Big Four railroad detectives were still working on the robbery of the depot here, in which the safe was blown open, although the door was not locked. It is understood that only a small amount of freight was stolen, and the detectives may trace the robbery by the stolen freight.
Between 80 and 90 cents in money was left in the drawer and this was all of the cash that was stolen and it is believed that the robbers then turned their attention on the freight room.

CIRCUIT JURY IS CALLED

Case Wednesday On A Note Will Require Jury Services

The jury has been called into service Wednesday in the circuit court for the first time in the May term, which convened last week, and the case to be heard is a complaint on a note demanding $90 judgment.

The complaint was filed by the Peet Stock Remedy Company against Howard Kehl. An extra panel of ten names has been drawn to fill in the jury box with the regular panel that was drawn at the beginning of the court term.

Several other cases are set for trial in the next few weeks which will need a jury, provided the cases are tried as on the court calendar.

DANCING CLASSIC BEAUTIFUL EVENT

Recital Given Monday Night By Pupils Of Lura Stratton, Was Well Received By Audience

PRETTY COSTUMES WERE WORN

Pupils Of This City And Newcastle Combined In Giving Program In Three Parts

The classic dance recital given at the Princess Theatre Monday evening by the pupils of Miss Lura Stratton, both from this city and Newcastle was a very beautiful affair and was attended by a large and responsive crowd. Much credit is due the teacher, Miss Stratton, of Newcastle, for the success of the evening, as she has worked untiringly for the past few weeks, preparing for the recital, and her efforts were rewarded.

Most of the dances were original-ated by Miss Stratton, who also furnished the costumes. Miss M. Mae Schmidt of Newcastle was the pianist for the different dances and a phonograph, furnished by the Drake's Music store, was used for a few of the dances. The stage properties were furnished by Wyatt's Furniture store and the draperies used in the Oriental ballet by Mauzy Company.

The program was given in three parts, the first part opening with a dance entitled "Bubbles," by Joanne Harrold, Janet Mauzy, Jean Norris, Bonnie Jean Beale, Martha Williamson and Jane Griesser.
Others who participated in the selection of dances in this part of the program were Virginia Bussard, Martha and Sarah Jane Williamson, Bonnie Jean Beale, Virginia Payne, Jean Clark, Frances Beale, Jean Norris, Elizabeth Payne and Judith Mauzy, of this city, and Mary Frances Schroeder of Newcastle.
This part of the program closed with "A Maid and the Fairies," Martha Williamson being the maid and the fairies were Sarah Jane Williamson, Jean Clark and Helen Francis. The Goblins were Virginia Payne and Virginia Bussard.

"A daughter of the Nile," was the opening number for the second part of the program, which was danced by Mary Elizabeth Beale. The scarf dance as given by Marion Kin-singer was beautiful. She interpreted an innocent spirit, who encountered an evil one and after a struggle, innocence is triumphant.
The next number was "Batterfly and Rose" danced by Mary F. Schroeder and Hyacinth Swazy of Newcastle. Frances Beale gave "The Firefly" and this number was followed by the Narcissus ballet. Miss Francis Payne was Narcissus and the nymphs were Judith Mauzy, Marion Kinsinger, Mary Beale and Pauline Mathies. The legend attached to the story is beautiful.
Some nymphs, while dancing are interrupted by Narcissus, who discovers a crystal pool. As he is admiring his beautiful reflection the mischievous nymphs change him into the flower "Narcissus" because of his vanity. Other numbers were "Hungarian Dance" Adeline Swazy
of Newcastle; "Boy and Hoe" Mabel Williams of Newcastle; "In The Shadow of the Sphinx" Beatrice Ogborn of Newcastle and "Ecstasy" by Miss Stratton who interpreted

THE CHILD THAT NEVER GREW UP

STATE PRESIDENT IS HERE TONIGHT

Mrs. G. G. Derbyshire, President Of The State Parent-Teachers' Association, To Hold Meeting

GRAHAM SCHOOL, 7:45 TONIGHT

Executive Will Lay Plans Which Will Probably Result In Organization Here Next Year

Mrs. G. G. Derbyshire, President of the State Parent Teacher's Association will give an address upon the objects of the Parent-Teachers' Association, tonight at 7:45 o'clock, at the Graham high school assembly room. The object of this meeting is to plan for a good real live association for next school year.

Ever since development of public education parents and teachers have been associated. Nothing is more important to each than a close cooperation of parents and teachers.
Each needs to understand the other and to stand ready to serve each other. Such co-operation strengthens the structure of education and makes it effective to the limits of its possibilities. Parents want the best education for their children.
The teacher's work is to interpret for them the work of the schools in relation to the demands of society.
Teachers and parents in an open forum can promote sympathetic cooperation. Parents and teachers can gain much by these meetings; but the child around whom, after all, the whole structure is built, receives an incalculable benefit. The child will be better understood at school where the things which promote the physical, mental, and moral development of the child. The child will be more sympathetically treated at home where parenthood with its privileges and responsibilities all working with the school to secure the best training for the child.

The P. T. A. of Indiana has a membership of more than 13,000.
Each year at the State Teacher's Association the organization holds very helpful meetings to which teachers are invited.

Judge Will M. Sparks will act as chairman of the meeting this evening and every parent and interested citizen should take the privilege of attending this meeting which will do much to interest those sponsoring the organization. Every club and society of the city should be represented.

NEW WHISTLE CREATES STIR ON A TEST TOOT

The power house at the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction Company's plant here, has installed a new factory whistle and by way of introduction was given a try-out Monday afternoon between three and four o'clock. The whistle is one of the loudest in the city, and resembles a steam-boat. When it began blowing yesterday afternoon, it caused quite a stir throughout the city, and telephones were kept busy in many offices, especially at the fire headquarters.

Even one excited person summoned the fire department to Third and Arthur streets, but no blaze could be discovered.

TO MAKE REPORT SOON AS POSSIBLE

Herrin Investigating Committee Completes Public Hearing Today Following Long Grind

BULKY EVIDENCE OBTAINED

Several Trunk Loads Will be Gone Over And Report May be Made Within Two or Three Weeks

By HALBERT O. CREWS
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Springfield, Ill., May 15—Following its final public hearing this afternoon the Herrin investigating committee of the house laid plans for the drafting of its report. It hopes to have the report ready within two weeks at the longest.

The committee has collected several trunks full of transcript of testimony and of exhibits. To go over this mass of material and arrive at a decision on the points involved, Chairman F. A. McCarthy says, is a monumental task. Neither he nor any member of the committee will give any intimation of the possible subject matter of the report.

It is believed, however, that it will cover the following points:

- 1—A finding of fact as to the circumstances leading up to the massacre and its causes.
- 2—A finding relative to responsibility of public officials for the failure to call troops to protect the lives of the strip miners.
- 3—Recommendations for the prevention of similar outrages in the future.

Chairman McCarthy today gave instructions for the preparation of a digest of evidence. With that as a foundation he will draft a preliminary report and submit it to the other members of the commission. After all have had an opportunity to go over this tentative draft and work out their own ideas a conference will be held and the final report will be agreed upon.

COLD WAVE WARNING

Washington, May 15. —Another cold wave of marked intensity is sweeping down on the country out of the northwest, trailing in its wake snow and freezing weather, the weather bureau announced today.
By tonight the Ohio valley states will be in its grip and tomorrow night the Atlantic coasts will shiver from snow, if not freezing.

UNABLE TO GIVE $500 BOND, GOES TO JAIL

Orean Snyder, Fails To Give Bond
To Circuit Court On Paternity
Charge, Pending Action

GREENFIELD GIRL PROSECUTES

Orean Snyder, who was arrested in Justice Stech's court, several days ago on a paternity charge, was committed to jail this morning by Justice Stech, when he failed to provide the $500 bond. The case was heard several days ago, and the lower court bound him over to the circuit court, but he failed to give the necessary bond, which caused his arrest this morning.

The case in the circuit court, in which the evidence will be heard, will be set for an early trial, in all probability, so that the matter can be disposed of as soon as possible.

The prosecuting witness for the state, in her preliminary hearing, stated that she was 20 years old,
and was married last November to Louie Jackson. She and her husband resided together a month, and he has recently filed a complaint in Hancock county to have their marriage annulled, alleging that he was fraudulently implicated for the purpose of marriage.

TO SPEND A MILLION ON NEW INTERURBANS

I. & C. Traction Company Has Deal On To Add New Equipment To Its Local Lines

FIRM IS INCORPORATED

First steps were taken Monday in which new equipment for the Indianapolis and Cincinnati traction company will be purchased, according to articles of incorporation taken out, and a meeting was being held this afternoon in Indianapolis to make final arrangements for the placing of an order for new interurban cars.

The corporation papers were taken out in favor of the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Car Trust Equipment Company, Indianapolis; capital $1,305,756.99, with the purpose being to equip street and interurban railroads; the directors were listed as J. Craig Fisher, Gordon F. Miller and Otto P. Kern.

The company that will supply the new cars was incorporated for the purpose of completing the deal with the traction company, and which will enable to fulfill the orders, and abolish mortgages and legal procedure in securing the money for the deal.

The Norris Fertilizer Company of this city, also has been incorporated with $20,000 capital stock, and with Will Norris of Rushville as the agent.

CONTINUES PROBE ON "KING" DAVID

Intimate Life of Ruler of House of David is Still Under Fire Before Judge Dingeman

OHIO GIRL ON STAND

Testimony is Secret, But it is Intimated That She Has Story About One of His Dancers

St. Joseph, Mich., May 15—Stories of the intimate life of "King" Benjamin Purnell, ruler of the House of David, were given today to Judge Harry Dingeman, conducting the "one man" grand jury investigation of the religious cult.

Esther Widders of Mansfield, Ohio, a former member of the colony, was called to tell of experiences while she was a resident of Shiloh.

While her testimony was guarded in closest secrecy, her story was connected with Levina Johnson Heigner, Hula Hula dancer for Benjamin, who said the "King" had once attempted to attack her while she was in a pantry.

Levina told the authorities Esther had valuable information regarding Benjamin's conduct. The Ohio girl was brought here Sunday and up to the time of being called before the inquisitors, was closeted with her former Shiloh chum.

The state authorities depended upon the dancer to induce Esther to tell all of the facts regarding the happenings while she was in the colony.

Despite the many investigations of the House of David in progress, the colony is preparing to reap the greatest harvest of gold in its history this summer.

The cult depends largely upon activities in the summer season for its revenue. The baseball team, the park, zoo, band and orchestra are the big money makers and already the fruits of publicity are to be seen in the increasing numbers of curious who visit the grounds.

The park—Eden Springs—where King Benjamin was wont to orate twice daily on the gathering of the twelve tribes of Israel, furnishes entertainment and amusement for thousands of pleasure seekers. The zoo, under which the "seventh angel" and young brother of Jesus Christ is reported to have constructed secret tunnels furnishing an escaped from threatened dangers, now comes in for added attention.

Although the park isn't usually opened until later, large numbers have been attracted by recent notoriety and all revenue producing concessions are in operation.

The platform from which Benjamin used to deliver his sermons followed by hula dances by Levina, is being repaired and reworked for the return of the "phantom king."

PAINFULLY INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Mrs. B. F. Miller Suffers Broken Collar Bone And Ribs In Crash
Of Two Machines Late Monday

ACCIDENT AT ARLINGTON

Mrs. B. F. Miller, 501 North Morgan street, was painfully injured Monday afternoon about five o'clock when a Ford coupe in which she and her sister, Miss Effie Dailey, was struck by a machine driven by Jacob Brown, at the cross-roads in Arlington, and which resulted in the Miller machine being overturned, and badly damaged.

Mrs. Miller sustained a broken right collar bone, several broken ribs and bruises, but Miss Dailey escaped without any serious injuries.
Miss Dailey was driving the coupe and they were returning home from Indianapolis. Mr. Brown, who resides on the Tom Mull farm at Homer, was going south on the cement road in Arlington, and the two machines met, in which the Brown machine struck the side of the coupe, overturning it in the road.

Mrs. Miller was reported today to be suffering intensely from her injuries, and also was suffering from a nervous shock. The occupants of the other machine were unhurt, and the machine was not badly damaged.

PURDUE EGG SHOW WAS BIG SUCCESS

Purdue Heifer, Lady Clarice Mae, Makes Record For Senior Three-Year-Old Class

HIGHEST STATE PRODUCER

Produced in Year 12,530 of Milk And 716.16 Pounds of Fat—Increase of 48 Pounds

Another state production record has been added to those already held by Jersey cows in the Purdue University herd. This is the record for senior three year olds and was made by the heifer, Lady Clarice Mae 343426. She produced in a year 12,530 pounds of milk and 716.16 pounds of fat and thereby increased the Indiana record for Jerseys of this age by over 45 pounds of fat. The former record for this class was 668 pounds of fat made by Sayda's mariposa, owned by Henry Hellmich of Greensburg, Indiana. Not only does this Purdue heifer establish a new Jersey record but she becomes the highest producing senior three year-old of any breed in Indiana, displacing the former holder of this record, Willormoor Miss Carston, an Ayrshire owned by The Gossard Breeding Estates at Martinsville, which had a record at this age of 714.96 pounds of fat.

Lady Clarice Mae is bred to the junior Jersey sire in the Purdue herd Fawcett's Juggler, and is due to freshen in June, and at this time will qualify for both the American Jersey Cattle Club Silver and Gold Medals.

This heifer is one of the best individuals in the University Jersey herd and comes from some high producing ancestry. While she is her sire's first daughter to freshen, she at least gives indication that his other daughters should be high producers. Her sire's dam has a yearly record of 14,492 pounds of milk and 853 pounds of fat. The dam, granddam and great granddam of Lady Clarice Mae were all bred in the Purdue herd, and the former two are in the herd today. Her dam has a record of 530 pounds of fat as a three year old; her granddam produced 523 pounds of fat as a ten year old, and her great granddam produced 447 pounds of fat as a 5 year old. It can be seen therefore that this heifer comes from high producing ancestry.

This heifer was given good care and good feed during the year. Her daily ration was made up as follows: Ten pounds of alfalfa hay; 24 pounds of corn silage; 12-16 pounds of grain mixture made of: Ground corn, Ground oats, Wheat bran, Cottonseed meal, Linseed oil meal and Gluten meal.

During part of the year she also received from 2 to 4 pounds of best pulp daily.

The record made by this heifer is another example of what the three most essential factors for high production can bring about in the way of milk and butterfat records. These factors good breeding, good feed, and good care, bring results in dairy production and without all of them maximum milk and butterfat production cannot be obtained.

CLIP WHITE TOP IN MEADOWS NOW

Purdue Advises Farmers To Go After Weeds Early, Because Of Their Excessive Damage

WILL RUIN CROP OF HAY

White top probably does more damage in meadows than in any other situation. If the meadow is thoroughly taken by the weed, the best thing to do in many cases is to plow and plant soybeans or some other cultivated crop.

"There are many meadows that are infested with white top that can be reclaimed," says A. A. Hansen of the Purdue University Agricultural Extension Department. "Advantage may be taken of the habit of white top growing taller than the clover and timothy at this time of year. Adjust the cutter bar of the mowing machine so it will barely miss the meadow plants but will cut off the tops of the weed. The tops contain the buds and by cutting off the buds the white top is set back to such an extent that the meadow plants are freed from the intense competition with the weed and will thus have a better chance to get ahead of the white top. Incidentally the clipping process will prevent many of the white top plants from ripening seed, a very desirable feature."

Clipping white top in meadows is easily and quickly done and is well repaid in larger yields of hay. The practice should be generally established throughout Indiana.

NUTRITION VALUE TOPIC FOR WOMEN

Farm Women Of 19 Counties Are Studying Food From Nutrition Standpoint—Purdue Project

GOOD RESULTS OBTAINED

Food Products Survey In Each Township To Determine Real Food Needs, Is Part Of Program

Women from 19 Indiana counties are studying food from the nutrition standpoint, under the project worked out by the Home Economics Department of Purdue University. All day meetings were held during March in Owen, Monroe, Jackson, White, Noble, Wabash, Wells and Delaware counties at which two women from each township were present for the first lesson by an extension worker from Purdue.

As a result, a food products survey has been conducted or is being conducted in each township of these respective counties, to determine the real food needs of the families in the townships. One outstanding feature revealed by these surveys to date is that the average farm has sufficient garden to provide all the green foods for, canning required during the winter months. The women are now starting garden "campaigns" in their own homes to overcome this factor.

The two representatives from each township who attended the monthly lessons given by the extension worker, then go back to their home communities and demonstrate to their neighbor what they learn from the university specialists. In this way, hundreds of women who would be unable to take advantage of this work, are reached and the value of the extension work is multiplied many times.

One of the projects being undertaken in several counties has been the baking and scoring of bread made from Indiana flour. The women are shown by this method why failures come in bread baking and given help in overcoming them.

NOT EXPECTED TO LIVE

Mrs. Ione Webb, widow of the late Forest Webb, was reported to be seriously ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Brown, of south of Manilla, and little hope was held for her recovery.

ANOTHER JERSEY SETS NEW RECORD

Largest and Best Egg Show Ever Held Had an Entry List of 145
at Recent Purdue Show

WON BY FRANKFORT BOY

Besides Large Display of Eggs,
There Were Also Educational Features for the Farmers

A total of 745 entries competed for honors in the fifteenth annual Purdue egg show which was held recently at the university, making it one of the largest and best shows of its kind ever held. A total of 51 bronze and silver cups, $200 in cash and $300 in merchandise was given winners in the various classes; the premium list far surpassing anything of the kind ever offered in an egg show.

Besides the large display of eggs of every description, there were educational displays from various university departments and from the American Railway Express Company, showing the right and wrong way to pack eggs for shipment. A miscellaneous feature of the show, in which freak eggs were shown, attracted much attention. This contained about everything from an ostrich to a wren's egg. R. L. Ditzler, of Huntington, one of the leading produce men of the state, judged the show.

Grand sweepstakes honors went to an eighteen year old boy, a student in vocational agriculture, David Allen of Frankfort, on his display of eggs from Brown Leghorn hens. The eggs graded as extras, weighing 26 ounces or better per dozen. He also won sweepstakes honors in the high school class.

Other sweepstakes winners follow: Experiment Stations, Pennsylvania State College.

Purdue students, W. P. Allen, brother of the grand sweepstakes winner, and M. B. Hardy.

Purdue faculty—P. H. Brewer, Poultry Association—C. B. Libbert, of Aurora.

Commercial—Louis Moorehead, Greenfield.

Panciers—W. L. Caswell, Elwood, Ill.

Grand schools—Harry Parkhurst, and Mary Borinewell, both of Spencer.

Packers' Class—Markle branch of R. L. Ditzler company.

The show is handled each year by a student committee of freshman poultry students under faculty supervision.

a maiden who has just met her first love.

The principal dance of the closing part of the program was "The Prince With the Golden Hair" an Oriental Ballet. Queen Adana was Lura Stratton, Prince, Martha Schroeder, Messenger, Dorothy Goldman and the maids were the Newcastle pupils. Others who appeared in dances during the scene, were Frances Payne, Marion Kinsinger of this city, and the others were Clara Shelton, Adonis Rogers, Frances Burke and Marguerite Rogers of Newcastle. The ensemble was the closing number of the program. Each dance given during the whole program was very charming and the dancers were graceful and interpreted their parts exceedingly well. Miss Stratton has been conducting a dancing school in this city as well as Newcastle during the winter and her program last night showed what had been accomplished during her teaching in this city.

Helps Girls And Grown-Ups Home Demonstration Agent

Miss Bernadette Keller, home demonstration agent of Vanderburg county, is not only working with the women of the county, but assisting the girls—the future home makers. Local club leaders have been selected and 300 girls enrolled for this work.

The canning demonstration team which competed in the state contest gave three demonstrations before the Evansville high school and one before the students of Evansville college. A student doing practice teaching from the college saw the demonstration at the High School and asked that it be given before the college girls. The team used a Pressure Cooker—many of the students had not seen this before.

The members of the demonstration team were eighth grade girls and the college girls marveled at their organization of subject matter, manipulation and poise.

Miss Keller chaperoned twenty club girls to the big club round-up held at Purdue University recently. Their happy faces, keen interest in the activities on the campus convince one that club work is worth while.

MANY KILLED IN ARKANSAS FLOOD

Wealthy guests from the eastern cities, the vaqueros of the tourists remained in their rooms in fear of the fury of the elements. The fire spread to the Dixie Cafe and the Oliver Finne Grocery Company and then licked its way up the walls of the Marquette Hotel. The hotel, a $750,000 structure, was totally destroyed.

The electric light plant went out of commission adding further to the confusion of the night.

The flames spread, taking in the American Express Company and the Rosenthal shoe store.

A report from Benton said that railway repair crews which had reached the edge of a wash out near Hot Springs brought back a story of 17 deaths in the storm. They said there was four feet of water in the railway station at Hot Springs.

No trains have arrived here from Hot Springs since the flood.

The little resort city lies in three valleys, formed by as many mountains. When the cloud burst came, it split the city in three sections. Water in torrents swept along the three main boulevards.

Store buildings collapsed from the force of the raging torrents in the streets and thousands of dollars in merchandise was swept away.

Motorists who stuck to their automobiles were tossed into the swirling waters. Several of these are believed to have drowned.

Frantic appeals for aid were dispatched from Hot Springs before the wire service had been completely knocked out last night. One of these reports stated that "description was impossible." Shortly after it was impossible to communicate with the city.

I. Clunie reports. One man placed more than 70, another 30 while five others have sold brooder stoves. More than one-half of these went into the hands of new operators. Calls for information on brooding chicks have come in from a very large percentage of the people. There is more than one fourth of a million being brooded in the county at the present time. Practically all of these, so far as they apply to any one farm, are one breed and one variety, with practically every breed and every variety of chickens represented. Farms brooding 1000 chicks or more are common.

"Selling" The League

A well organized campaign is being directed westward to "sell" the league of nations to the United States. Word filters through that the league authorities have set aside a definite sum of money for the purpose of converting the United States to the league idea. This propaganda bureau is in charge of a paid representative who is presenting the colored reports of the accomplishments of the organization for the purpose of making it appear that the United States should join, whether it be under the guise of a world court, or in some other manner.

Why becoming a member of the world court would not be practically joining the league is difficult to understand, yet we are told that it would not. The league of nations is to the world court what the constitution of the United States is to our supreme court. It is the law by which the world court would be guided in its decisions, just as the basic law of this country is the final authority for the highest tribunal.

But Americans are constantly being persuaded that joining the world court would not be the same as becoming a member of the league. This offer a fashion is the same sort of propaganda that is flooding this country, and it doesn't all come from the league's publicity agents.

No less a personage than Lord Robert Cecil recently attempted to show us that our membership in the league was essential to its welfare, having an eye always on the bag of gold at the end of the rainbow in the western hemisphere.

As a sample of the sort of claims that are being made for the league is cited the assertion of Lord Cecil that "it has struck vigorous blows at world evils like the sale of opium, cocaine and other noxious drugs." Congressman Stephen G. Porter of Pennsylvania, chairman of the house committee on foreign affairs, takes issue with this statement, asserting that the league has not only failed to strike at that evil but has actually stimulated the sale of narcotics throughout the world. He submitted facts in proof of the charge.

The last congress passed a joint resolution asking the president to urge upon the governments of Great Britain, Persia and Turkey "the immediate necessity of limiting the growth of the poppy and the production of opium and its derivatives exclusively to the amount actually required for strictly medicinal and scientific purposes." A similar resolution was submitted by the opium commission of the league to the league assembly, but, on motion of the delegate from India, the words "strictly medicinal and scientific" were stricken out and the word "legitimate" inserted. Inasmuch as the production of opium is already legitimate in the countries mentioned, the amendment not only destroyed the intended effect of the resolution, but actually gave league sanction to the production of opium without restraint.

The use of opium is permitted in the oriental possessions of many European countries, and huge profits are made by those engaged in the drug trade. One of the duties of the league as set forth in the covenant is to execute a "sacred trust of civilization for the well-being and development of people not yet able to stand by themselves." In a letter to Lord Cecil, Congressman Porter expressed curiosity as to how the official recognition of the opium traffic by the league can be brought into harmony with that provision of the covenant.

"If I visited Great Britain," Mr. Porter declared, "making addresses in support of the policies of your minority party, these policies being highly beneficial to my own country, and made any erroneous statements of fact, you would be fully justified in correcting the misapprehension which my public utterances had created, and by this letter I am availing myself of a like privilege.

"Your erroneous statement as to what the league of nations has accomplished, coupled with your advocacy of the league, permits the inference that the United States, by refusing to become a member hereof, is not only indifferent, but opposed to the suppression of this deadly traffic. As a matter of fact, the United States, without regard to revenue, has always pursued a program designed to suppress the illicit traffic in habit-forming narcotic drugs, and I earnestly trust that the nation of which you are a very distinguished citizen will ere long adopt the same policy, and thereby further cement the ties of friendship which now exist between our respective countries.

AGO TODAY

From The Daily Republican
Friday, May 15, 1908

Marion Banta, the well known clerk employed at Frank Wilson's clothing store barely escaped death last night from burnt gas fumes at his home in West Fifth street. Mr. Banta had remained to the bath room to take a bath and the gas under the tank was burning as usual, but for some inexplicable reason, fumes from the gas soon filled the little room and within a few minutes the man was lying prostrate on the floor, the victim of the deadly fumes. All night he suffered from the effects of the terrible experience and was still confined to his bed today.

Tomorrow afternoon about three o'clock there will be a parade of over fifty autos in the downtown district following a meeting of the Rush County Auto Club.

Judge Will M. Sparks after several days' deliberation and consulting various authorities and citations on the case today sustained the motion of Attorney Gates Sexton to grant the self confessed and condemned negro murderer, Leslie Bundrant, a new trial.

Mrs. George Young went to Indianapolis to attend a party given in honor of Miss Grace Gavanagh, a June bride. Miss Gavanagh has many friends here where she has often visited.

Mrs. James Brown will leave in a few weeks for Portland, Oregon, for a year's stay with her son, Charles Brown, who moved west about a year ago and who is delighted with life and conditions there.

Miss Bertha Monjar is the guest of friends in Greenfield.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Anna Martin of Sandusky and Guy D. Root of Fargo N. D., to occur Wednesday, May 27, at three p. m. at the home of the bride's mother. Miss Martin has many friends in this county.

A number of the local G. A. R. will go to Kokomo next Tuesday to attend the state encampment.

Leonard Clark and family will occupy a home in Tony Row, moving from the Aultman property in West First street. Mr. and Mrs. Aultman will move into their own property.

Ramon has it, now we have it, that A. L. Gary, attorney of this city, who was formerly county superintendent of schools, and who is now serving in that capacity during Supt. Headlee's illness, will be married within a few months to Miss Jessie Spann, who is now teaching in Ogden, Utah, and who was formerly a member of the Rushville high school faculty.

PHILLIPS ENTERED IN CHICAGO TOURNEY

Local High School Star Gets Big Mention In Chicago Tribune Concerning National Track Meet

ENTERED IN SEVERAL EVENTS

Herman Phillips, the all-around athlete of the Rushville high school, is among the first to place his name on the entry list of the national interscholastic track and field tourney to be held in Chicago, May 26, and the local boy received favorable mention in the Chicago Tribune Sunday, when his picture appeared and a sketch as to his ability. The following was said about the local sprinter:

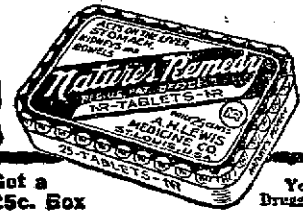

Herman Phillips, the smiling 18 year old high school kid of Rushville, Ind., whose name is the first to go on the entry card of the national interscholastic track and field classic which will be held at the University of Chicago May 26 is out to cop honors in four events. Phillips' most notable feat is in the 100 yard dash, at which he holds a record of 21 feet 7 1/2 inches. In the 100 yard dash he has a 10 flat mark. He also is entered in the 440 yard run and in the high jump; his height in the latter event is 5 feet 6 inches. The young Hoosier weighs 135 pounds and stands 5 feet 3 inches. He has been making big marks all through his high school competition and may carry one of the team trophies back to Rushville with him, all alone, as did Bud Houser of Oxnard, Cal., and Keeble of Austin Tex., last year.

Buying Players a Gamble

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, May 15.—When George W. Grant owned the Boston Braves he used to like to philosophize on the gambles that baseball presents for a magnate. Not being financially fixed as well as some of the more wealthy clubs, Grant used to do most of his gambling on gathering in young unknowns from the rookie world.

"It's all in luck," Grant said one day last winter. "Pat Moran got a whole team of fine young rookies who made regulars for him in one big sweep of the minors. Maybe he'll never find another one. They all come in bunches and some day I'll get mine."

He didn't stay in baseball long enough to see his hopes fulfilled at least partially. He sold the club during the winter and the expected strike of the Braves in the rookie market followed his retirement.

The Braves are disposing as classily a bunch of young players this season as are to be found in numbers on any major league club. In outfielders Bagwell and Felix, Second Baseman Conlon and Pitcher Genewich the Braves have a bunch of jewels.

Conlon, especially, seems to be a prize find. The former captain and star of the Harvard varsity nine was secured for a small bonus and he looks like the best fielding second baseman that has come into the majors since Eddie Collins made his debut.

The Harvard star stepped right off the campus at Cambridge into a big league uniform, and while he may have much to learn, he has the mental qualifications to absorb his lessons quickly and he has natural baseball ability.

Bagwell looks like another sure star.

The most striking commentary that can be made on Jim Genewich is that he cost the Braves ten cents, representing his earfare to and from the club offices, and he won his first two games in the big-time—both against the Giants.

Jack Bentley cost the Giants $65,000 and he is no youngster. Genewich, as has been said, cost a thin dime and he is only nineteen. Bentley lost his first two games and Genewich, as has been said, cost a thin dime.

Maybe that doesn't mean anything but any rookie pitcher who has the nerve to go in and pitch against the world's champions with the abandon and carelessness that Genewich used against the Giants has something and a lot of something.

In the hands of Fred Mitchell, one of the best pitching coaches among the major league managers, and with Dick Rudolph to wise him up, young Genewich might develop into the pitching sensation of the year.

FIREMEN'S STOVE IS GIVEN ANOTHER YEAR

Indianapolis, Ind., May 15.—The old fashioned red hot stove of the fire station social center of the neighborhood target for blue shirted firemen with luscious quids tucked away in their cheeks, has been granted at least one more winter in which to provide inspiration for enormous tales of heroism.

John L. Elliott, city engineer, has recommended that a steam heating plant be placed in only one fire station, which means that when the leaves turn next fall, the rusted, battered veterans of 19 stations will be dragged forth, given a coat of reeking stock polish and set on all fours once more.

Prosaic John J. O'Brien, fire chief had asked for steam heat in all twenty.

Insufficient funds was given by

Elliott as the reason for the reinstatement of the ancient and honorable shin-toasters.

Mr. Brown warned his audience that he would not be able to tell about the psychological effect of this and that as his mother would do because he had not given the thought and study to it. However, he told of the possibilities of the country of Cuba if the natives would just awaken to them and be industrious, and in a very real and interesting way told of the lack of sanitation of the poor food out in the rural districts where he stayed, of the very low morals of the natives, and of the exceedingly poor roads. At the close of the talk the hostess served punch and cakes to the members and guests.

Miss Meredith will remain with Miss Herkless the remainder of the week and Miss Wilson will return home this evening. Miss Wilson will attend Western College next year.

Miss Nelle Trobaugh was hostess Monday evening to the members of the Fortnightly Study club at her home in West Seventh street. This was the last meeting of the club for this year and in answer to the roll call the members responded with quotations from Rudyard Kipling. During the business session a report was given from the district convention of Federated Clubs at Brookville. Following the business session Miss Zora Carney gave a very interesting sketch of the life of Rudyard Kipling and read a few of his poems, characteristic of him. Miss Nelle Trobaugh reviewed his book "The Light That Failed" which was appreciated. At the close of the meeting Miss Trobaugh served dainty refreshments.

Most every one who realizes how effective Kellogg's Bran is for the permanent relief of constipation has their own particular way of serving this wonderful cereal. Most families eat it as a cereal with milk or cream. Others sprinkle it on their favorite hot or cold cereal. Every one enjoys its nut-like flavor!

If you are cooking a hot cereal try this method:—Measure out two table-spoonfuls for each member of the family. Mix it with the cereal and cook as you always cook the cereal.

Kellogg's Bran is scientifically prepared and ready to eat, but its regulatory powers are in no way impaired if you cook it with other cereals.

Kellogg's Bran has won the friendly recommendation of physicians because it does give prompt and permanent relief from mild or chronic constipation and because it can be eaten without forming a habit. Again, Kellogg's Bran will free you from drastic, dangerous cathartics.

When constipation conditions exist in your system or when you are threatened, do not take half-way measures. Foods with a partial bran content cannot free you! What you must have is Kellogg's Bran because it is ALL BRAN! Go the limit; get relief!

Every member of your family will delight in eating Bran raisin bread, muffins, pancakes, macaroons, etc. Recipes on every package.

Start eating Bran to-day! Get well—keep well—keep disease out of your home! First-class hotels, clubs and restaurants serve Kellogg's Bran in individual packages. All grocers.

New York, May 15—Speaking of long distance dancing contests, consider the unique record of Charlie Raiser, the oldest waiter on Broadway. For 40 years now he's been dancing attendance upon diners from all over the world who sooner or later arrive on the famous street.

Charlie has worn out hundreds of pairs of shoes doing his 100,000 miles from kitchen to table carrying his millions of steaks and chops and as many bottles of ale and beer—the latter previous of course, places that have weathered the Volstead storm.

He knows how Ethel Barrymore prefers her steak—slightly rare and very thick. He always brings George M. Cohan just the sauce he wants for his chops though scarcely anyone else uses that particular brand.

The tipping business is running about as usual he says.

"But the reports of the large tips waiters get have always been exaggerated," he confessed. "Our biggest tips come from the actors, not the millionaire bankers. Wall Streeters calculate their 10 per cent accurately.

"A five-dollar tip is now and always was a big tip. When a man gives more he is merely trying to impress some woman guest."

Indianapolis Has School Where Successful Business Men Attend Three Nights A Week

FEATURE GAMES AND PLAYS

Indianapolis, Ind., May 15—Indianapolis has a school where successful business men read primers.

Three nights a week foreign business men in large classes, attend the Americanization school conducted here at the Foreign House.

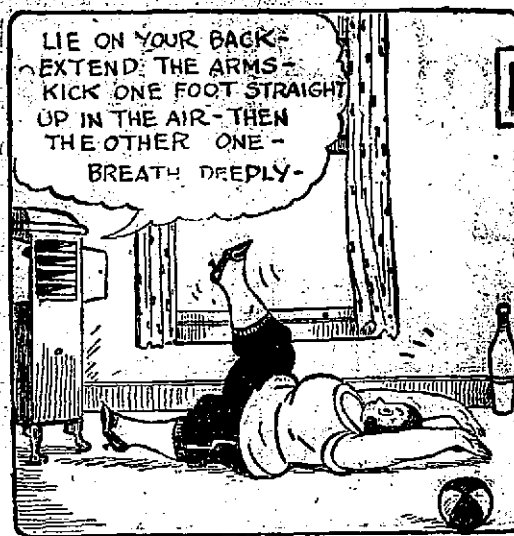

A moure isn't a moure at all—it's a watch, these business men learn, and as for puerta, it will open just as well if you call it a door.

The escapades of George Washington with his much chopped cherry three are read by advanced students.

Singing is resorted to, Henry W. Mason, teacher said, when the foreign minds become confused with too many new words and ideas.

Games and plays are featured by the school. Three short plays will be given May 18, when the school closes.

TO RELIEVE PAIN AND BACKACHE

Women May Depend upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I had heard so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that when I realized I needed to take something to relieve my pains and backache, and to help build me up I began to take that. I had been sick off and on for years and barely weighed a hundred pounds, but now I have had such good results that I am recommending the Vegetable Compound to every one." Mrs. J. J. BREWER, 8939 18th Ave. South, Minneapolis, Minn.

Finds a True Friend
"Every woman who values her health should be proud to have a true friend like the Vegetable Compound," says Mrs. W. E. Shaw, 3227 Walnut Street, Chicago, Illinois. "I had female weakness so badly that I could not stand on my feet. Half of my time was spent in bed and I had pains in my back which were unbearable. I tried everything I could think of to help myself, and when a friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I began taking it at once. I recommend it without hesitation."

EVEN A CIRCUS STILL HAS HOLD OF THE HEARTS OF THE PEOPLE

The circus, like most things, has its follies and frailties, but, somehow, it holds a steady place in the human heart. Its increasing list of novelties never grows stale. To the youthful imagination this is particularly so, and the recollection of the circus days back in one's youth, is something one really cherishes. Those gay and fearless bare-back riders—were there ever mortals quite so favored as they and especially when they vaulted through a paper hoop and alighted on the broad and steady back of the trotting steed? And the clowns—was there ever anything so funny and wise as these ever ready funmakers? And then the wire rope walkers, dainty women and graceful men, performing almost impossible feats

THEATRES MOVIES

Auto Thrill At Mystic

Alice Calhoun had a real auto thrill in making some of the most important action of "A Girl's Desire," which will be shown at the Mystic Theatre again today. The scenes were made with Frank Crane, who is cast as heavy in the production. He knows very little about driving a car and is always nervous when it comes to making scenes in which he is forced to drive.

They were making closeups, with the cameraman, Steve Smith, on a platform built over the hood. The assistants were on the running board holding reflectors.

In the scene Mr. Crane drives a roadster and Miss Calhoun is seated beside him. During the action he became excited and confused. He placed his foot on the accelerator and lost control of the car.

Miss Calhoun, an expert driver and always level-headed, realized the danger and grabbed the emergency brake at the same time trying to straighten the wheels. They barely missed two cars and a brick wall. But with Miss Calhoun a miss is as good as a mile, and collected as though nothing had happened. It is all in a day's work with her and she meets every emergency squarely.

Had the car hit the brick wall or another machine the cameraman would have been crushed, as it would have been a head-on collision.

Ancient Egypt On Screen

Travelers who have visited Cairo and the lower regions of the Nile will find Pola Negri's first American picture, "Bella Donna," which comes to the Princess Theatre today, Wednesday and Thursday, more of the real Egypt than they were ever privileged to see during their actual visits.

According to Dudley Stuart Corlett, special technical adviser and a noted Egyptologist, real Egypt can only be found far from the points of contact with European civilization. Inasmuch as "Bella Donna" calls for the Egypt of the Egyptians, Corlett has supplied the picture with genuine and little known scenic backgrounds.

Perhaps the most beautiful and slightly known is the temple of Abu Simbel in upper Egypt, which was on the slender thread of wire; the trapeze performer, sitting about the bar like a bird on a limb; the man who could turn a double somersault over the backs of a line of horses; the glittering beauty who could trip up a pole held by a strong man and hang by her toes from the top of it; and THEN—

But where will this reminiscence end? It knows no end while imagination waits on memory. The circus may have its faults, everything under the sun has some fault, but we don't believe there is a whole-souled man or woman who would wish to drive its memory out of the days of their youth.

In contrast to the tireless of our youth, we gaze in amazement at the promise made by the advertising of the Gentry Bros. Famous Shows, combined with James Patterson's Big Four Ring Trained Wild Animal Circus—the 20th Century wonder show, which comes to Rushville Thursday, May 24.

Four rings and two elevated stages all occupied with new, novel and sensational features, while the big hippodrome oval fairly swarms with over a score of the best known clowns on the road to-day, and it is assured that the best parade ever attempted by the Gentry Bros. Famous Shows, combined with James Patterson's Big Four Ring Trained Wild Animal Circus will be seen here that day, verily, circus day is anxiously awaited.

reconstructed for this picture by George Fitzmaurice, the producer. This structure carved from the living rock on the bank of the Nile, is so constructed that its interior is illuminated by the rising sun for only five minutes of the day just at dawn.

The temple serves as the background of a meeting between Pola Negri in the title role of this Paramount picture with Baroudi, played by Conway Tearle. Other members of the cast are Conrad Nagel, Lois Wilson, Claude King and Macey Harlan.

GOOD BUSINESS AIDS COAL MINERS

Numerous Inquiries From Large Consumers Of Steam Coal Give Bright Side To Coal Mining

EXPECT HEAVY PRODUCTION

Mines Now Are Exceeding Customary Schedule Of Production And No Dull Season Probable

Terre Haute, Ind., May 15.—Indiana coal operators are getting a concrete expression of the prosperity that rules in industrial and business activity, and the leading operators in the Indiana field are expecting a busy year for the mining industry. The numerous inquiries from large consumers of steam coal give bright side to coal mining, for other industry must be prosperous before the operators get business. Further, the inquiries indicate that industrial leaders are looking forward for a long period of heavy production, and with this in view are easing about for fuel supplies for that period.

Operations at the numerous mines throughout the state are larger than usual at the close of a heavy producing season, and frequently the mines operate only one or two days a week in April and May, with many being closed down. However, the usual dull months of April, May, June and July now seem certain to be forgone. Among the inquiries for prices of steam coal are some big railroad lines, and it seems probable that they will begin storing coal next month instead of in August, which has been their custom over a long period of years.

The probability of the railroads entering the market three months ahead of the usual time is regarded by Indiana operators as indicating a busy summer season because with the roads buying even on a moderate scale, such buying is expected to attract purchases by the large utility companies.

In the domestic market, operators say that jobbers and retailers are holding off until later, with indications that the rush of this business will come in the fall. As a whole, the operators look to this year as one exceeding usual production.

INSURANCE FIRMS WATCH VIOLATORS

Life and Fire Companies Won't Risk Bootleggers or Drug Users Who Apply For Policies

REGARDED AS BAD RISKS

Washington, May 15.—Men who manufacture moonshine and the men who drink it have been placed in the undesirable class by insurance agents, says Director J. E. Russell of Ohio in a report to Federal Prohibition Commissioner R. A. Haynes.

"We are carefully scrutinizing applications for insurance, both life and fire, in an effort to eliminate all those who engage in or encourage the manufacture of bootleg whiskey, for they are all bad risks. An Akron insurance agent is quoted as saying 'The man who drinks moonshine is flirting with death and the man who manufactures it may be killed any time while fleeing from prohibition enforcement officers. We have rejected many policies within the last few months after learning that the applicants either drank or were engaged in the hazardous occupation of manufacture.'

"Furthermore," said Russell, "fire insurance agents will not insure any building in which illicit stills are established and are promptly cancelling policies when they learn that the buildings insured are being used for this purpose."

Among other things Director Russell reported that a violator of the prohibition law paid into the county treasury at Columbus $1,200, of which $200 was in payment of his fine and $1,000 was a tax levied under the Dow-Aikin law. County officials purpose to enforce this penalty against 59 other violators of the prohibition act. "Thus," said Russell, "not only is the offender brought to justice but the county treasury is enriched."

The Horsepower That Is Always Escaping

THE automobile is so far from perfect that ALWAYS—every mile—you are losing seven times as much fuel energy as you are using.

Friction, wind-pressure, heat-loss, slippage—all these and a dozen more burdens are constantly dragging at your power until all you have left for actual travel is 12½ per cent—a bare one-eighth of the power-units you have paid for.

WITH SUCH A HANDICAP, you can't afford to cut still further into the final margin by using a low-grade, kerosene-laden motor fuel that admittedly is of low efficiency to start with.

Silver Flash Gasoline

—and nothing short of it—can insure to that significant, usable eighth the full amount that you can get from your car—whether you measure it in motor condition, miles traveled, comfort in starting and driving, or in actual money paid for gasoline.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating. No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c and 30c.
